

Please when considering the telephone no call list do not supercede the Indiana no call list. The Indiana no call list really works, and makes it so much easier for the consumer to forget about annoying calls. We do not wish to go back in time when we will receive more unwanted calls. Maybe you could pattern a no call list after the Indiana law since consumers in Indiana are happy with what they have. Again, please do not destroy the law in Indiana.